PENGENNA MANOR HOUSE TOUR

Pengenna Manor is an 800 year old private house set in over 300 acres of beautiful Cornish countryside. It is tucked away in a secluded valley just three miles inland from the North Cornish coast.

The Manor has been the home of the Blewett family for over 150 years. The current owner is Richard Blewett who took over in 2011 and will personally host our tour.

Pengenna began as a one room two-storey hall built in 1220.

The earliest document mentioning Pengenna dates to 1523 with the Pentyre family in residence. By 1590 they had the large main front wing built.

In 1735 the Prince of Wales sold Pengenna to the Molesworth family of Pencarrow Estate who had the original medieval wing partly demolished.

Moving on it was in 1925 that the Blewetts were able to buy Pengenna from the Molesworth family.

House Tour at 2pm

We are pleased to offer a guided tour of Pengenna Manor, Trelill, Wadebridge, led by the owner, Richard Blewett.

Richard offers an exclusive behind-the-scenes tour of the manor house and its 800 years of amazing history. He will personally lead us around the house and answer our questions. We will get to see the hidden areas as yet unrestored. Afterwards we can take a look around the rest of the venue, gardens and grounds before enjoying a delicious homemade cream tea with fruit and plain scone, strawberry jam, clotted cream and lashings of tea.

The tour starts promptly at 2pm and should last around 1 to 1½ hours with plenty of time for questions at the end. We need to arrive 10 – 15 minutes before the tour starts.

We will be served our cream team in the gorgeous surroundings of the 200-year old Stables looking out over the valley below.
